

Meet 'your' new Tackle Indigenous Smoking Team

ask

CARBAL'S
TACKLING Indigenous smoking team

Louise and Richard will be out and about in the community – make sure you come and have yarn. Contact us today to start your 'quitting' journey.

1300 379 558

Louise Martin Warwick Aboriginal Health Worker

Louise has an extensive working history in the business and health sector. She has worked in Cunnamulla, Rockhampton, Mount Morgan, Toowoomba and now resides in Warwick.

Louise is a qualified Aboriginal Health Worker and provided services throughout her career in her positions of:

- ✓ Bringing Them Home/Stolen Generation Coordinator
- ✓ Quality Coordinator
- ✓ Aboriginal Medical Services Clinic Manager
- ✓ Health Promotion Officer

Within all her roles, Louise is committed to the mob and making a difference on a personal and community level.

Richard Turnbull Toowoomba Aboriginal Health Worker

Richard has worked in Mount Isa, Alice Springs and Tennant Creek improving Indigenous and non-Indigenous health and wellbeing.

Richard is a qualified Environmental Health Practitioner with a Degree in Applied Science (environmental health), Certificate IV in Primary Health Care and has worked in Native Title and Aboriginal Legal Services.

Richard knows what it is like to quit smoking as he believes that once knowledge is understood, then the healing process can start to develop towards individual health and wellbeing. Make the change.